

Organizer Training for the Advancing Capacity and Training for Immigrant worker to Organize Now!
(ACTION!)
3 Day Training

The ACTION! Organizing Project is for bilingual in Spanish individuals interested in a career working for social justice as a union organizer, particularly with immigrant workers. Participants selected from the Organizing Training will be considered for a 1 year, paid, organizer apprenticeship. Organizers will be on the front lines of the Los Angeles labor movement's efforts to engage immigrant workers to organize for better workplace conditions.

WHAT: 3-Day Organizing Training

The AFL-CIO, ACTION! Organizing Project in conjunction with the AFL-CIO Organizing Institute will conduct the training. The curriculum includes basic union organizing skills as well campaign strategy and tactics. Participants will be evaluated through classrooms sessions and interactive role plays.

WHEN:	Friday, April 26th	10:00 am - 6:00 pm
	Saturday, April 27th	9:00 am - 6:00 pm
	Sunday, April 28th	9:00 am - 12:00 pm

WHERE: The training will be at the local union UDW
1445 West Spruce Street, Riverside CA 92507.

WHO: People who are bilingual (English & Spanish); who have passion for social & economic justice with a valid driver's license and insured car.

Please apply here

Deadline to apply is April 18, 2019 but applications will be accepted until all positions are filled.